

Extension
Activity
10

Jesus has a special meal with his friends

FOCUS

1. Jesus gave his life for us.
2. At the Last Supper Jesus taught us to celebrate the Eucharist.

During lesson time your child:

- listened to a story about the Last Supper;
- discussed why the Last Supper was a special meal;
- became aware of Jesus' words at the Last Supper.

Just before Jesus died he gathered his disciples together for a special meal. He asked his disciples to go and prepare a room and a table for the meal. When the time came for the meal, Jesus sat at the table with his disciples. As they were eating, Jesus took the bread, broke it and gave it to his disciples saying to them, "Take this all of you and eat it, this is my body." He then took a cup of wine and gave it to them and told them to drink from it, saying to them, "Take this all of you and drink it, this is my blood."

SUGGESTED HOME ACTIVITIES

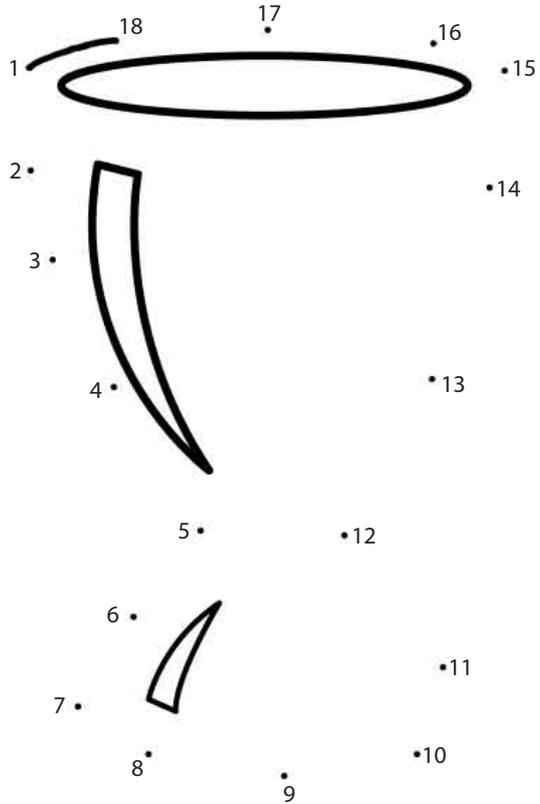

These are some suggested activities to do at home with your child.

1. Read and discuss the Bible story about the Last Supper with your child.
2. Talk to your child about how Jesus might have felt knowing that he was going to eat his last meal with his friends.
3. Take your child to Mass and encourage him or her to listen carefully to the words of the priest, emphasising how similar they are to the words of the Last Supper.
4. Help your child complete the join-the-dots exercise on the next page.

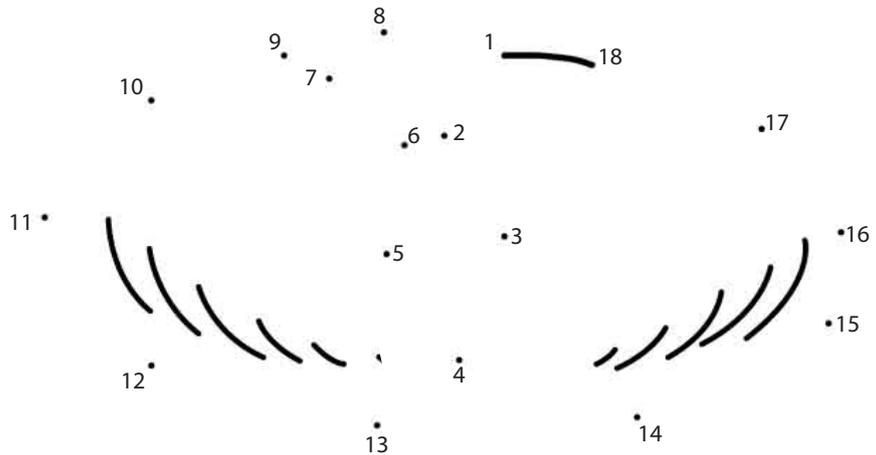

Just before Jesus died he gathered with his disciples for a special meal. As they were eating Jesus took two things and shared them with his friends. What were these two things? To find out, complete the two join-the-dots.

W _ _ _

B _ _ _ _

To Remember:

We remember Jesus in the breaking of the bread.