

CATECHIST NEWS

Dear Catechists,

Welcome to the Feb/March issue of the Catechist Newsletter.
A very warm welcome also to the many new volunteers who have attended training and will be praying with and teaching our parish children in their local public schools very soon.

This edition of the newsletter is jam packed with lots of information - we hope you enjoy reading the articles.

Of particular note, our initial training units, 1.4 and 1.5 have been changed to address training course feedback from new volunteers asking for even more classroom management and in-class skills.

May God bless your wonderful outreach in schools this year.

Meet the CCD Team

Meet the great people that work at CCD Sydney. Each month we will feature one of our staff in this newsletter.

This month we meet Priscilla Donovan - Bookshop Assistant for the Mustard Seed Bookshop. Priscilla commenced working at the CCD bookshop in 2011 (previously known as Sydney Catholic Books & Resources) and now is a valuable member of the Mustard Seed Bookshop since 2017. You may have spoken to Priscilla when ordering COLAL books or sacramental workbooks, or when calling the CCD office for any queries.

In my spare time I enjoy walking, scrapbooking and gardening.

My coffee order is a long black with a dash of lactose-free milk.

My ideal travel destination - too many to pick just one!
Remembering we live in the greatest travel destination in the world - Australia!

The best gift you could give me is more years with my dearly departed parents....oh and world peace!!

Three saints I would invite to dinner are St Joseph, St Ann, and St Thomas More.

My favourite Bible verse is John 6:35 "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Priscilla is pictured here with Atef Ataya (Mustard Seed Bookshop Manager) and valuable assistant Rachael Humphreys

Frequently asked questions about training:

Q. I am "only" a catechist helper. What training must I do?

Both Catechists and Catechist Helpers are SRE Teachers and must be trained in Safeguarding, Classroom Management and Using the Curriculum in accordance with Archdiocesan and NSW Department of Education (DoE) requirements. Refer to the Training Course Outline on page 19 for further details.

Q. I am a qualified teacher. What training must I do?

Qualified teachers need to undertake initial and ongoing training that is specific to SRE, as do all SRE teachers (Catechist and Helpers), in accordance with Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney's annual assurance to the NSW DoE.

Q. Why must I complete 'Using the Authorised Curriculum' face-to-face?

The face-to-face training provides hands-on training in the use of the Teacher's Manual and Activity Book related to the year group you are teaching or assisting.

2020 CCRESS Conference

Last November from 17-19 November the CCRESS conference was held in the Diocese of Armidale.

CCRESS conferences are held in May and November each year and the various dioceses across NSW take turns in hosting. The next conference will be held in May 2021, and will take place here in the Archdiocese of Sydney.

Each NSW-ACT Catholic Diocese provides a ministry to families, who choose Special Religious Education (SRE) for their children in public schools, through sending volunteer Parish Catechists and Helpers, who are trained as SRE teachers, to hand on Jesus's Good News. Therefore, CCRESS exists to assist our NSW-ACT Bishops by supporting their commitment to provide trained and resourced Catechists as SRE teachers and by collaborating with SRE Providers of other faiths, the NSW Department of Education and our politicians to uphold religious choice of families.

For more information on CCRESS, see: <https://www.ccress.org.au/>

CCRESS representatives from our NSW-ACT Catholic Dioceses gathered in Armidale.

their time and talents in spreading the good news to students in Public Schools and their families.
May God bless you all.

Spotlight on Jamelie Morabito - Denistone Parish

Jamelie, our team's longest-serving catechist, has chalked up an incredible 40 years in Year 2. Jamelie said she never graduated to Year 3!

Her contribution was acknowledged at St Mary's Cathedral with many other catechists, on Sunday 7 February 2021. Under Jamelie's watchful eye, the children have enjoyed her joyful and enthusiastic personality and the treats she occasionally brought to enrich her lessons. Jamelie recalled how years ago she could hand out jelly rings when teaching about the Marriage Feast at Cana and spearmint leaves for St Patrick's Day. Those days are sadly past.

Still, as energetic and most recently as a helper in Year 2, it has taken Covid to slow down her catechetical program. So, for the time being, Jamelie is resting from her role until things settle down. Her friends at Denistone Parish wish her well and congratulate her on the outstanding commitment she has shown to the children at Denistone East.

Catechist Corner

Hello
my name
is

Experienced or new, here are some tips for the beginning of the year...

1. Learn the students' names – use name tags, seating arrangements, class roll, etc.
2. Set the class rules and consequences - keep rules few, simple and clear. You could check the school rules and consequences. Most primary schools display these in the classroom. This avoids duplication and reinventing the wheel.
3. In Kindy classes, try the five “L’s” - look at the teacher, lips still, legs crossed (when students sit on the floor), hands on lap, ears listen.
4. Develop a routine or structure with the class, i.e. how they enter the classroom, move from one activity to the next, distribute books, set up the prayer place, etc.
5. Make prayer and the prayer space an integral part of your lesson. Allow time for prayers at the beginning and end of lessons. This is in your teacher’s manual.
6. Promote classroom discussions rather than lengthy periods of teacher talk. A student’s attention span is their age plus one year, i.e. if they are six years old, their attention span is seven minutes.
7. Engage your students in the ‘I Wonder’ questions. Allow time for students to ponder over the questions. This will hold their attention and enthusiasm. This is in your teacher’s manual.
8. Read your teacher’s manual, whether it is new or familiar to you. You need to be familiar with each lesson and be aware of the lesson's aim, the ‘TO REMEMBER’.
9. Always have a backup plan in case the technology fails.
10. A great teacher will reflect after each lesson. Take the time to think through what worked and what didn’t work in your lesson.

Classroom Rules

- 1 I Listen and follow instructions
- 2 I allow one person to speak at a time
- 3 I raise my hand and wait to speak
- 4 I use all equipment safely
- 5 I speak politely and use my manners

The 5 L's of Learning

Time Management Tip

Anne Carruthers, a catechist from the Western Area, sets her phone alarm five minutes before the end of the lesson. This routine allows her to conclude the lesson with prayer and the To Remember.

Catechist Corner

Social Media and Photos/Videos

From our initial induction/refresher Level 1 SRE Catechist training, you will recall the "NSW Department of Education Code of Conduct"...

SRE Teachers (Catechists and Assistants) are to be aware of the NSW Department of Education Code of Conduct, which includes the "Social Media Policy" and act in accordance with the conduct described in it. Of particular note in the "Social Media Policy" is Section 23 in the Department's 'Code of Conduct Procedures'.

Simply put:

- no photos/videos to be taken of students
- no "be-friending" on private social media accounts

Project Compassion

We do not collect Project Compassion fundraising money from students in public schools. Rather we raise their awareness of the needs of others, via teaching our authorised curriculum. If students say they do want to contribute, catechists simply direct them to ask their parents/carers to go to their local parish to do so.

Resources on Project Compassion can be found at the following website: <https://lent.caritas.org.au/page/schools>. Please click on "Classroom Resources" on the homepage.

TEACHING LENT & HOLY WEEK LESSONS

Lent is a time the Church prepares to celebrate the great feast of Easter. Use a purple prayer cloth – purple because we are preparing for a feast. In Holy week, we remember how much Jesus loved us. The students will learn that Jesus died for us on Good Friday and rose to new life on Easter Sunday. This is taught across the years in an age appropriate manner. The scope and sequence in your Teacher's Manual gives you some idea of what is taught in each year level. Part of this is reproduced below:

Kindergarten

- Holy Week: the washing of the feet and the Last Supper.
- Easter Sunday: we celebrate Jesus rising to a new life.

Year 1

- Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent.
- Lent is a time to grow in love.
- Palm Sunday is the first day in Holy Week.
- Easter Sunday: we celebrate Jesus rising to a new life.
